Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who have nothing prepared;
for today is holy to our Lord.

Nehemiah 8:10

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

JANUARY 27, 2019

The book of Isaiah has been called the fifth Gospel, so often do the Gospel writers use it for proclaiming Jesus as Christ, the long-awaited Messiah and Son of God. In today's Gospel reading, Jesus begins to move through his home territory of Galilee "in the power of the Spirit" (Luke 4:14), the same Spirit that descended on him after his baptism. He then goes to his hometown of Nazareth and to the synagogue on the Sabbath.

A hush must have filled the room as he walked to the place of reading and searched the scroll to find this passage. They had been hearing about his time in Galilee and how all had praised his teaching. What would he say to them? He chose Isaiah's words (61:1–2a) about one anointed by the Spirit who would preach good news to the poor, bring liberty to captives, and, at the heart of these lines, exercise a ministry of compassion, a reference to another citation from Isaiah (see 42:6b).

This three-part mission continues to be the work of the Church: preaching the Gospel, working for social justice, and reaching out to all peoples in compassion. At the beginning of his ministry, Jesus announced that this work was being fulfilled in the hearing of his listeners by what he was doing. The Spirit works to do the same today through us.

Living God's Word

When Ezra read from the book of the law of God, explaining it so the people could understand, they wept, but he said to them: "Today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!" (Nehemiah 8:10). Ask God to let the divine word bring joy to your heart.

Anointing of the Sick

In coinciding with the World Day of the Sick, St. Charles will be celebrating the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, Sunday, February 10th at the 11:00am Mass.

If you would like to participate in this very special sacrament, please arrive 15 minutes early to sign in. Please sit in the reserved pews at the front of the church. Your family may sit with you. For any questions, contact Kathy Fagliano at 591-7349 ext. 402.

The Anointing of the Sick is administered to bring spiritual and even physical strength during sickness and is not limited to those who are gravely ill. Paragraph 1520 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that "the first grace of this sacrament is one of strengthening, peace, and courage...This grace is a gift of the Holy Spirit, who renews trust and faith in God."

Please pray for the people in our parish community who are sick, awaiting surgery, recovering or homebound, especially: Joyce McCarthy, Patricia Snowden, Alma Brennan, Terry Roman, Laurette Hollywood, Josie Heath, Armando Botello, Pat Boland, Eduardo Hernandez, Bob McCormick, Nicholas Jerrold, Rosie Maffei, Grace Wasmer, Nicholas Peters, Peggy Saunders, Carmen Esquivel, and their caregivers.

Next weekend's second collection will benefit parish education. Thank you for your continued support.

★ St. Charles School Open House ★ Today - 9:45am - 12:00pm

You are invited to explore the campus; see student art and classwork, and talk to teachers. In a Catholic school, we enjoy the freedom to proclaim and model our faith through our everyday actions and learning. As we educate our children we proudly exclaim character, compassion, service, and love, recognize mistakes, celebrate success, and accept differences. It means something to be a member of a Catholic school AND it means something special to be a member of the St. Charles School community.

Eucharistic Adoration

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will take place on Friday February 1 in the chapel in the Parish Center beginning at 9:00am, concluding at 10:00pm.

All are welcome!

Please pray for our 53 teens newly confirmed who received the sacrament from Most Reverend William J. Justice Auxiliary Bishop of San Francisco this weekend during the 5:00pm Mass on Saturday.

"Remember, then, that you received a spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear. Keep safe what you received. God the Father sealed you, Christ the Lord strengthened you and sent the Spirit into your hearts as the pledge of what is to come."
— St. Ambrose

St. Charles Celebrates the Gift of Marriage February 17th at the 11:00am Mass

Bishop Robert F. Christian, O.P. will be the principal celebrant. Register at www.anniversarymass.info or call (415) 614-5547 for more information.

LOVE IN OUR WORKS

Our Lord does not care so much for the importance of our works as for the love with which they are done.
