We are people of Faith, Community, & Service, centered in Jesus, we celebrate and worship through Roman Catholic traditions. As a community we welcome all cultures of God's people. We serve God's people through outreach and social justice.

Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time • July 11, 2021

Mother Teresa challenged us to do ordinary things with extraordinary love. Basketball coach Jim Valvano said, “Every single day, in every walk of life, ordinary people do extraordinary things.” Sometimes we see extraordinary abilities, such as a child-prodigy musician. Yet, those called by God are often reluctant participants who either run from the call or ignore it. Amos tells Amaziah “I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores.” (He looked after sheep and punched holes in fruit for a living.) Now he was being called to prophesy! In Mark’s Gospel the apostles are sent out two-by-two to begin their ministries. Paul takes it further, telling the Ephesians, “In Him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things.” God’s call goes out to all of us! How are you being called this day to be extraordinary?

Remember in your prayers...the people of our parish community who are sick, awaiting surgery, recovering or homebound: Susan Welsh, Greg Camp, Lorraine Murphy, Isobel Englert, Mercedes Saliguero, Hugh Francis, Jill Leader, Barbara Peters, Bill Eppler, Peggy Saunders...and for all that are impaired by Covid19.

“Before the foundation of the world God chose us in Christ.” Are you discerning the vocation that God has chosen for you in Christ? Might it be to serve the Church in the consecrated life or priesthood? If you think He may be calling you contact the Vocation Office at (415) 614-5684 or email: vocations@sfarch.org.

St. Vincent de Paul is Hiring!

Are you a compassionate listener who wants to make a difference in women's lives? St. Vincent de Paul of San Mateo County is looking to hire a part-time, relief staff member for Catherine Center, a Restorative Justice Program of Svdp. A clean driving record is required, knowledge of recovery a plus. This is a paid, part-time position with hours on week-ends, holidays, and evenings. If you are interested, send a statement of interest, your resume, and three references to Vivian at vclausing@svdpsm.org.

UNFINISHED MISSION

Here's a simple test to find out whether your mission on earth is finished: If you're alive, it isn't. —Anonymous

The Women's Catholic Scripture Study of San Mateo County invites you to the 2021-2022 Bible study, Thus Says the LORD: God Speaks Through His Servants the Prophets, Volume II: Restoration and Redemption. Meetings are held from 9:45am-Noon, at St. Mark Catholic Church, Belmont on Thursdays, 9/16/21- 3/31/22 (with holiday breaks). For more information, visit the website www.cssbelmont.com.

To register, please contact Martha Rubio at msr.rubio@gmail.com, or 650-743-0949.

Minister of the Clicker

We are once again able to sing during Mass! St. Charles Parish now has the capability to project the words to songs and prayers on the church walls. We need volunteers for this new ministry—people who would manage the display by "clicking" for each new slide of the words for prayers, responses, and songs throughout the Mass. Please contact the parish office if you are interested, 650-791-7349.

“Let us not forget that the Eucharist is meant to nourish those who are weary and hungry along the way....

a Church with open doors, that gathers and celebrates around Christ, is a large room where everyone—everyone, the righteous and sinners—can enter.”

Finding Your People at St. Charles

Friends + Faith = Community. If you've been thinking about deepening your faith, then “small group faith sharing” could be a great opportunity for you. Different from “Bible study” groups, this kind of sharing doesn't include formal study or writing. Rather, it is a casual gathering of people who share faith and want to connect with others, using the weekly readings and Gospels as topics for discussion. All are welcome! We will have a short Zoom session on Wednesday July 21 at 7:00pm, when parishioners will share their faith experiences. If you'd like to participate, please contact Heidi at hdembinski@stcharlesschoolsc.org. The link will be emailed to you prior to the event.

Thank You!

Catholic Charities opens summer STEAM Camp in Half Moon Bay. Thanks in part to your support of the recent Catholic Charities' Sunday 2nd Collection, we are excited to offer a five-week Science, Technology, Engineering, Art, and Mathematics (STEAM) summer camp for 95 Half Moon Bay public school students in partnership with the Cabrillo Unified School District. After months of sheltering in place, STEAM Camp is a positive outlet for these rising fifth-through-seventh graders. Our goal is to “inspire students to learn and overcome the devastating learning loss so many of our youth have experienced,” shares Jilma Meneses, Catholic Charities CEO.

Please be sure to wear a mask when you are in church.

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, We bless you, We adore you, We glorify you, We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

1st Reading

Am 7:12-15

Amaziah, priest of Bethel, said to Amos, "Off with you, visionary, flee to the land of Judah! There earn your bread by prophesying, but never again prophesy in Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple." Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, nor have I belonged to a company of prophets; I was a shepherd and a dresser of sycamores. The LORD took me from following the flock, and said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel."

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace. Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss. Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase. Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

2nd Reading

Eph 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens, as he chose us in him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before him. In love he destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of his will, for the praise of the glory of his grace that he granted us in the beloved. In him we have redemption by his blood, the forgiveness of transgressions, in accord with the riches of his grace that he lavished upon us. In all wisdom and insight, he has made known to us the mystery of his will in accord with his favor that he set forth in him as a plan for the fullness of times, to sum up all things in Christ, in heaven and on earth. In him we were also chosen, destined in accord with the purpose of the One who accomplishes all things according to the intention of his will, so that we might exist for the praise of his glory, we who first hoped in Christ. In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory.

Gospel

Mk 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. He instructed them to take nothing for the Journey but a walking stick— no food, no sack, no money in their belts. They were, however, to wear sandals but not a second tunic. He said to them, Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." So they went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the Resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be Separated from You. Amen.
