Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. To many, the image of a king includes pomp, ceremony, like no other. His authority is place. He is the one “who is and who was and who is to come.” Jesus reigns differently than humble obedience to the will of the same. By following the truth to his voice of love we are made whose dominion is everlasting. king, the image that comes to civic authority. Jesus is a king the constraints of time or place. His authority is everlasting. He is the one “who is and who was and who is to come.” Jesus does not rule as earthly kings govern. Jesus reigns in humble obedience to the will of God the Father and calls us to do the same. It is by following the truth of Christ’s command and listening to his voice of love that we are made into a kingdom, serving the One whose dominion is everlasting.

Please pray for the faithful departed of our parish community.

Remember in your prayers the people of our parish community who are sick, awaiting surgery, recovering or homebound: Dorothy Bieniek, Patrick Boland, Rosa Nikolic, Marissa Malatesta, Fr. John Sakowski, Connie Romeo, Rose Del Zompo, June Chichizola, Susan Welsh, Greg Camp, Isobel Englert, Jill Leader, Bill Eppler...and for all that are impaired by Covid19.

Flu season is upon us. If you are not feeling well and aren't sure if you should attend Mass, please stay home to prevent the spread of viruses to your fellow parishioners. If you have been diagnosed with COVID 19, please call the parish office.

Outdoor Masses have been discontinued for the season.

Masks are required in Church, regardless of vaccination status.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

This week our second collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development, the national anti-poverty program of the US Catholic Bishops. More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. This campaign works to break the cycle of poverty by helping people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families, and communities. Your donations help further this mission. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd.

Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel: The Exhibition San Francisco

Now on display at St. Marys' Cathedral in San Francisco, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel comes alive with audio narration and up-close opportunities to linger, listen, and learn. True-to-size reproductions of Michelangelo's 34 frescoes were created using licensed, high-definition photos and special printing techniques that showcase the awe and wonder of one of the greatest artistic achievements of humankind. Informative audio streaming (either by personal cell phone or exhibit audio system) highlights the history and humor of Michelangelo's creations. Perfect for a holiday outing or a personal treat, this exhibit is scheduled through January 9. For more information, or to purchase tickets, go to www.sistinechapel exhibit.com/san-francisco Dynamic pricing averages $20 adults, $15 children. Located at the Cathedral of the Assumption of Mary, 1111 Gough Street, San Francisco.

Happy Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving Day there will be one Mass at 9:00am. As we have done each year, we will take up a collection to support our sister parish, St. Francis of Assisi. Please try to join us for this Mass, which offers a very special sense of community. And please invite any friend or neighbor who would like to be included.

St. Matthias Book Club Series

Racial Justice and the Catholic Church, written by Reverend Bryan N. Massingale, theologian and racial justice scholar, addresses the thorny issue of racial justice past and present. Father Massingale is Professor of Theological and Social Ethics, as well as the Senior Ethics Fellow in Fordham's Center for Ethics Education. Prior to his appointment at Fordham, he was Professor of Theology at Marquette University. Massingale writes from experience and conviction that the Catholic faith and the black experience make essential contributions in the continuing struggle against racial injustice. This discussion series, offered as a "book club" by the Justice & Charity Commission of St. Matthias Church, seeks to educate participants about Catholic teachings on racism and about racial justice within the Catholic Church. Participants are asked to purchase the book before beginning the program. This six-week, virtual series will include prayer, reading, reflection, and discussion about the book.

Mondays: Dec. 6, 13, 20 and Jan. 10, 17, and 24
Google Meet, 7:00 - 8:00 pm.

Technical support will be provided for all participants. For questions, or to register, contact the St. Matthias Parish office at (650) 366-9544 or email sabrina@stmatthiasparish.org.

St. Charles Parish Coat Drive

Please donate warm coats (new or gently used) for people in need, especially as the weather is turning colder. Bins will be located at the church entrances, the school front entrance, and the school lower yard from November 28 to December 19. Your donations will be delivered to the St. Anthony Foundation in San Francisco by Scarlet O'Brien and Zack Beals.

Music for Today

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Opening: Alleluia Sing to Jesus BB#719

Preparation of Gifts: In Christ Alone BB#412

Communion: Bread for the World BB#341

Final: To Jesus Christ Our Sovereign King BB# 723

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, We bless you, We adore you, We glorify you, We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father, Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, You alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Dn 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw one like a Son of man coming, on the clouds of heaven; when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

Responsorial Psalm

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

The LORD is king, in splendor robed;
robed is the LORD and girt about with strength.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

And he has made the world firm,
not to be moved.

Your throne stands firm from of old;
from everlasting you are, O LORD.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

Your decrees are worthy of trust indeed;
holiness befits your house,
O LORD, for length of days.

R. The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

2nd Reading

Rv 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen. Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

Gospel

Jn 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus,

"Are you the King of the Jews?"

Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?"

Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I?"

Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion...My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
